13 Signs the Law of Attraction Is Working for You

The Universe sends human beings countless signs and symbols over the course of their lives, and if you are able to comprehend them, you'll be able to sense when you're on your destined path in life—and when you're not. Please read the list below to make sure you haven't missed any vital info, and to ensure that you're on the right journey.

#1: Seeing 1's.

This is the most powerful repetitive number in the Universe, and it normally relates to autonomy, fresh beginnings, and new realities. If you see a bunch of ones after you've just thought of an idea or a decision, then this is a strong sign that the Universe approves.

#2: Seeing 11:11.

11:11 is often connected with being an ideal time for action. If you experience seeing this time often—even if it's not actually at that time of day or night—then you're probably on the path to reaching the full potential that the Law of Attraction holds for you.

#3: Feeling goosebumps or chills.

13 Signs the Law of Attraction Is Working for You

This is a sign that your body and your subconscious may be detecting a change in the journey regarding the Law of Attraction. What's more, it usually means that a positive change in your vibration will result in a positive change in the path that you are destined to take.

#4: Telepathic visions or sensations.

These occur when you think of a person out of the blue and then the next instant you receive a call, text, or email from them. This is a sign that you have the potential to make great progress on your quest in life in the present, and also that the Universe is listening to you when you make these insights.

#5: Rainbows.

When you witness a rainbow, it usually means that the Law of Attraction is signaling that you are getting very close to reaching the final stages of your Universal journey. More specifically, it could mean that you've gotten over a significant block or challenge which has been preventing you from making progress.

#6: Cloud Formations.

If you look into the sky and see something like a star, a heart, or something you have been desiring, then it means that you're likely about to receive a gift from the Universe. It may not be exactly what you have been envisioning or desiring, but it will be a gift that will genuinely benefit your life.

#7: Your initials in patterns.

If you see your initials on car license plates, in patterns of water, in tea leaves, or on signs and advertisements, it means that you've developed a significant connection to the Universe. Whenever this occurs, you should embrace multisensory visualization and supporting affirmations in order to make rapid progress toward the last stages of your quest.

#8: Other people's initials in patterns.

Conversely, when you keep noticing the initials of other people over and over—especially if they're the initials of the same person every time—then it means that you and these people have the potential to develop strong Universal connections to each other. In fact, it means you should probably attempt to do so.

#9: Seeing random repeating numbers.

Even if the repeating numbers don't include many 1's (or any 1's), seeing any repeating numbers over and over again is still a strong sign that the Law of Attraction is working on your behalf. To maximize the benefits of this, read about numerology and learn what specific patterns usually indicate. For instance, 21:21 is connected to balance and self-knowledge, which could indicate that you're growing as a human being, whereas 9:11 might suggest that now is the time to start fresh.

#10: Extreme calmness.

This normally means that your vibration is aligning with the Universe's, and also that you are doing what the Universe has intended you to do in general. You haven't reached the end of your quest yet, but you're calm because you're headed in the right direction.

#11: Recurring, specific déjà vu.

This means that the Law of Attraction is working on your behalf; you're finding your true place in the Universe, and déjà vu is a way of telling you you're close. The more you experience the same vision or sensation, the closer you are.

#12: Recurring déjà vu—around the same person.

If déjà vu always seems to happen around the same person, this is a sign that you need to think about them more—or think about them differently. They may be able to help you a lot more than they already are, or you may be able to assist them toward the end of their Universal quest.

#13: Desires become realities.

When what you happen to be thinking about, desiring most, or attempting to obtain most in life suddenly appears nearby—or if you just happen to spot it nearby—then you can sleep easy knowing that the Law of Attraction is working on your behalf, and that you're very close to best part of your Universal journey.
